FINAL EXAM - HTML PROJECT

Client Brief: "Book or Movie Showcase"

Project Overview

You've been hired to build a fan-made website dedicated to a book or movie.

The client already provided the content – your job is to implement it using valid, semantic HTML and follow best practices.

Your website must include 3 pages:

1. Homepage (Intro + Highlight)
2. Details page (Chapters or Cast)
3. Contact form (for fan feedback)

You must decide which tags to use and how to structure each page.

Required Folder Structure

book-or-movie-showcase/

|— index.html
|— details.html
|— contact.html
└─ assets/
    |— images/
    |— media/
    └─ css/

Include the following content:

- Page title: "The Enchanted Library"
- <h1> with text: "The Enchanted Library"

- Intro paragraph:
"The Enchanted Library is a magical tale of a forgotten building where books whisper secrets, and stories come to life."
- Navigation bar with links to:
 - Home (index.html)
 - Details (details.html)
 - Contact (contact.html)
- Image:
 - src: assets/images/library.jpg
 - alt: "Illustration of a glowing old library at night"
- Unordered list titled "Main Themes":
 - Magic and Mystery
 - Hidden Knowledge
 - Courage and Curiosity
- Footer text: "© 2025 FanSite Productions. All rights reserved."
- HTML comment at the end:
<!-- End of homepage -->
